24.07.2026

Dear Esteemed Members,

It is my privilege and pleasure to extend to you all a warm and hearty welcome to the 18th Annual General Body (AGM) meeting of Foundation for Restoration of National Values (FRNV). Your organization has completed 18 glorious years since 9th June 2008.

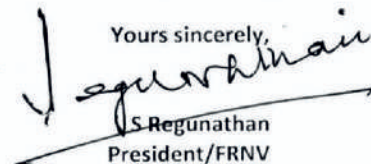

During the year, 3 schools workshops were held in Delhi and 3 in Bhubaneswar. National Seminar on Criminality & Candidature – prohibiting criminals from being appointed as Ministers was held on 12th April 2025 at New Delhi. Poojya Swami Bhoomananda Tirtha ji graced the seminar. As advised by Poojya Swami ji, collective efforts are required for bringing reforms and de-criminalize politics. Social media is one of the tools through which FRNV is striving to stir the sentiments of the public for mass awareness.

The bi-monthly print journal (Value Insight) is receiving good response. Educational institutions and Corporate organizations are subscribing to the journal. Regional Chapters have also been trying to encourage sponsors for journal subscription in bulk.

I would now recommend various resolutions, audited reports and General Secretary's annual report that will be tabled in the AGM for your consideration and acceptance.

Thanking you all,

Yours sincerely,

S. Regunathan
President/FRNV

3. State Bank of India, Parliament Street, New Delhi 110001 (FCRA Bank Account)

FRNV Vision

FRNV will strive to restore our time-tested National and cultural values, so that people, individually as well as collectively, find an abiding inner persuasion to be truthful, ethical, patriotic, and committed to wholesome development of the Nation.

Aims & Objectives

Dedicated towards creating more ethical value based leadership driven by conviction so that leadership with integrity creates most appropriate conditions in democracy for all around National development.

- I. Aims at creating ethical leadership in the areas of business, administration, police, politics and value based education.
- II. Hopes to stimulate awareness among all members of the society, about the importance of the Duties of the Indian citizens, through its actions.
- III. Restore the National and Cultural Values of the country, so as to enrich and empower the Administration as well as its citizens.
- IV. To institute and propagate, ethical knowledge and disciplines, especially Value-based insights, as applicable to all sections of people without any distinction of gender, caste, creed or religion, with a view to promote and preserve individual, social and universal well-being, development, collective wisdom and peace.
- V. To imbue on the basis of our common heritage, moral and ethical values and principles, that foster civic sense, concern for others and the environment, in members of all sections of the society without any distinction of gender, caste, creed or religion.
- VI. To work towards the strengthening of ethical standards in the Executive, Judiciary as well as people's bodies and representatives, and all other agencies that interact with citizens, and endeavor to inculcate standards, so as to enhance their ability to understand and serve the needs of society in a way that upholds and fosters the greater good.

Our National Values

The solution to the value crisis lies in the inspiration provided by the three stable pillars on which independent India has vouched to rest firmly:

1. National Motto; 'Satyameva Jayate'; signifying that 'truth shall prevail', which we chose for ourselves, in the wake of independence.

2. National Flag; that proclaims ceaselessly the message of inner sacrifice, inmost purity, preservation of natural abundance, and vitality of the Earth.
3. Fundamental Duties in the Constitution; enjoining each one of us to value and uphold the composite culture of our country, and to be inspired by the great ideals that led our national struggle for independence.

Together, these make an exquisite triangle encompassing all our National values, and FRNV draws its inspiration from this ocean of strength.

Our National Values consist of discipline, restraint, and the ideal to stimulate the consciousness of all, to achieve:

- Eradication of inner constrictions born out of selfishness and greed;
- Imbuement of a warm fondness for society and concern for the collective good; and
- Building of sufficient inner strength and character, in the individual, family and society as a whole.

Our Strategy

- I. Influencing the influencers.
- II. As the crisis has its roots in the mind and intelligence, aim at stimulating change at a germinal level.
- III. Not a grassroots level movement.
- IV. At the same some grassroots-level activities may be required.
- V. Today youth is playing a key role in the National Scene.

Our Focus Areas

Towards creating a Value-based Society, FRNV focuses on the following areas:

1. Values-Based Education:

The main focus of this project is to implement FRNV's Values-based education methodology across schools in our country. FRNV's mission is to become known as an 'Opinion Leader' in the area of Values-based education in the country.

2. Electoral and Administrative Reforms (including Judicial Reforms):

FRNV will focus on achieving the following:

- ☐ Prevention of people with criminal background from contesting elections;
- ☐ Prevention of money and muscle power in conduct of elections;
- ☐ Legislative backing to implement code of conduct during elections;
- ☐ Speedy disposal of poll petitions and criminal cases against poll candidates;
- ☐ Ensure accountability of elected representatives to the electorate;
- ☐ Improve transparency and effectiveness in public administration
- ☐ Ensure greater governance with less government; and
- ☐ Speedy disposal of pending cases in courts.

3. Police Reforms:

FRNV will focus on achieving the following: -

- Ø Implementation of recommendations made by the Supreme Court.
- Ø Prompt registration of First Information Reports and Investigation.
- Ø Proper follow up of prosecution cases in courts;
- Ø Making police people friendly, and
- Ø Setting up of effective Police Complaints Authority (PCA) and prompt deterrent action against offenders.

4. Sanitation and Hygiene:

FRNV advocates on waste segregation, solid-waste management and educating citizens about civic sense.

5. Corporate Engagements for Ethics & Governance:

At the Foundation for Restoration of National Values, we believe that corporate integrity is important to attain sustainable development. We seek to stimulate the inner consciousness of corporate leaders and strive to maintain a high level of transparency within the organizations.

Our Regional Chapters

FRNV does not restrict itself within the region of Delhi and aims at expanding its motives to all parts of the country. The efficient functioning of the regional chapters will ensure effective implementation of police reforms in the different states as per Supreme Court directives, implementation of value-based education in the different tiers of education across all state of the country and to implement electoral and administrative reforms across the nation in an attempt to prevent value erosion and eradicate corruption.

Following structure has been approved for its Regional Chapter:-

Projects/activities undertaken during FY 2025 - 2026

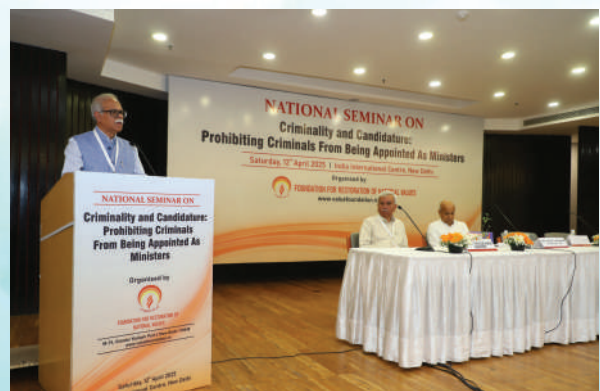

National Seminar on Criminality and Candidature

On 12 th April 2025, a wake-up call to the people of India came from a seminar held in India International Centre, Delhi, on Criminality and Candidature: Prohibiting Criminals from being approved as Ministers. It saw overwhelming response from the people. “We invite your views and seek your participation in taking the movement forward,” said the President, Shri S Regunathan (former Chief Secretary, Delhi) of the Foundation for Restoration of National Values.

Retired judges, administrative officers, police officers, members of the election commission, media persons, members of the Association of Democratic Reforms, corporate leaders and businessmen came together for the first time in the capital to raise their voice against criminalisation of politics. Speakers highlighted the percentage increase of criminals in politics over the past 20 years. Additionally, they laid figures of the number of crorepatis who were members of Parliament; 46% of MPs have criminal cases against them and 90% of them are crorepatis as of today.

The seminar was inaugurated by Swami Bhoomananda Tirtha ji who said, “We tell our children that they are ours that they belong to this state, this caste, this religion and this community. We should first and foremost tell them they are Indians. I speak before you as an Indian. Only second to that am I a sanyasi.” He also said that the base for attracting the masses to participate in governance lies in the inculcation of eternal values and making them an integral part of the movement.

The seminar was addressed by the eminent speakers like, Justice M Grover, Former Judge of Punjab and Haryana High Court, Sri Trilochan Sastry, Founder Member, Association for Democratic Reforms, Shri S M Sahai, IPS (Retd.), Shri Rama Nath Jha, Advocate, Supreme Court of India, Smt. Anubhuti Vishnoi, Senior Journalist, Shri M L Sharma, Former.

Information Commissioner & former Special Director/CBI, Sri Akshay Rout, former Director General, Election Commission of India and Sri. Aakarshan Aditya, Advocate on Record.

Values Based Education Workshop on 22nd May 2025

FRNV Organized a Values Based Education Workshop on 22nd May 2025 at Ashok Memorial Public School, Faridabad. About 135 teachers attended the workshop.

The workshop was addressed by Shri S Regunathan, President/FRNV, Shri Ashwani Kumar, General Secretary, Dr. Sharda Kumari, Head, Values Based Education Task Force, FRNV and Resource Person, CBSE and Dr. Pushpa Jindal, Philanthropist and Social Activist. Smt. Mamta Singh, Principal, Ashok Memorial Public School welcomed the guests and Director Smt. Geeta Sachdeva, Ashok Memorial Public School graced the occasion.

Values Based Education Workshop on 4th August 2025

FRNV Organized a Values Based Education Workshop on 4th August 2025 at District Institute of Education & training (DIET), Moti Bagh, New Delhi. About 140 students (2nd year batch) and 10 faculties attended the workshop. Dr. Sharda Kumari, Head, Values Based Education Task Force, FRNV and Resource Person, CBSE, Ms. Asha Khurana, former Lecturer, Deptt. of Education and Ms. Simmi Sachdeva, former HOS, NDMC School addressed the students. Dr. Neelam, DIET welcomed the speakers and the students for the workshop.

SECTION V

Get Involved

How can you as a citizen be a part of FRNV?

This is a call to every citizen of this country, who feels proud of being an Indian. If you wish to be part of this movement, there are several ways to do so.

- I. This movement is to rekindle inspiration in the society to draw upon the values ingrained in our culture and heritage. The best contribution to the movement would be to express your solidarity in thought, word, and deed. Spread the word about this movement amongst those closest to you.
- ii. You may endorse the aims and objectives of the movement by joining FRNV as a 'FRIEND of FRNV'. FRNV will update you with its activities and you will find greater opportunities to take part in the movement.
- iii. FRNV has established regional chapters in several important cities of the country. Do contact the local /closest FRNV chapter to discuss what you can do further to aid the movement.

You can become a:

1. Member

Members of FRNV express their solidarity with the FRNV objective and actively engage with the organization in word, action, and deed. They wholeheartedly commit to imbibing our national values and consciously work towards spreading the FRNV initiatives amongst other citizens. They may also send contributions to support the activities of the Foundation.

Concessional fee (Associate Membership) is open for academicians / principals / vice principals / professors / teachers / students, etc.,

Concessional Corporate Membership is available for Educational Institutions and Hospitals/Clinics, etc.

FRNV membership is open to organizations and individuals from diverse geographical, cultural and professional backgrounds.

2. Volunteer your time

A National Movement on Values Restoration can only be successful if people with a passion for bringing about change come forward to participate in this.

We invite you to participate in this noble cause by doing the following:

- o Encourage as many people as you can to demonstrate value-based living.
- o Inform people about FRNV. Urge them to join this movement by becoming a Friend of FRNV.
- o We all will agree that one way to convey ideas about value inculcation and value-based living is to read about, introspect over and emulate the lives of inspiring role models. We are planning to put together such inspiring biographies of individuals, and stories and anecdotes of value-based living. Volunteer to identify role models and compile biographies. Gather inspiring stories and anecdotes of value-based living.
- o Collecting quotes: We are in the process of collecting quotations by eminent leaders, thinkers, scholars, scientists and others from across the years, from across the world, who has spoken about India and its greatness. We would like to host these in our website so that people can be inspired by what is truly our own.

3. Become a Corporate Member

According to the CSR Guidelines laid down by the Government, it is incumbent upon the business that they must be actively engaged in securing ethical standards and good governance. Companies are increasingly engaging in sector-specific or multi-industry initiatives, locally, regionally and/or globally to share their experiences, learn from peers and, in partnership with other stakeholders, contribute to leveling the playing field. FRNV, as an organization is the right platform for companies to demonstrate their commitment to ethical practices and promotion of governance.

FRNV membership is open to organizations and individuals from diverse geographical, cultural and professional backgrounds.

Companies/SMEs/Institutions committed to doing business ethically are encouraged to become member of FRNV. We charge nominal membership fee that is used to carry out our ongoing activities.

4. Make a donation

Such a foundational movement is not possible without firm support from like-minded citizens. Any contributions may please be made through an online mode/RTGS/cheque/DD in favour of “Foundation for Restoration of National Values,” and send it to our office address.

5. Support an event or fundraising activity.

Other ways you can help our cause

FRNV invites Friends and Members of FRNV to volunteer for committees on Value Based Education (VBE), Administrative Reforms, Police reforms and Electoral Reforms.

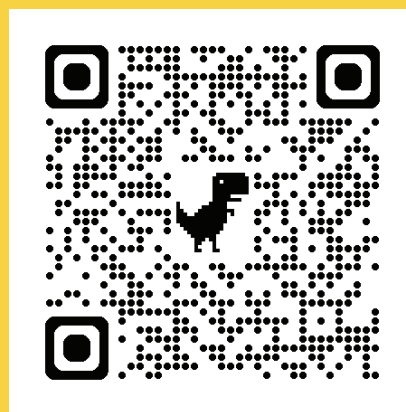

We also invite articles for our bi-monthly journal “Value Insight”.
